THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

JUNE 10, 1888.

To the Republican National Convention, held at Chicago, Ill., on Tuesday, the 10th day of June, 1888, at 12 o'clock, noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice President to be supported at the next national election, and for the transaction of such other business as may be there presented.

Republican electors in the several states, and voters without regard to past political affiliation, difference of opinion as to the merits of the various principles of protective tariff for the defense and development of home industries and the elevation of home labor; who would reduce the national taxes and prevent the accumulation of the surplus in the treasury in harmony with this principle; who are opposed to the attempt now more openly avowed than ever before to establish a policy which would strike down American labor to the level of the under-paid and oppressed workers of foreign lands; who favor a system of naval and coast defense which will enable the United States to conduct its international negotiations with self-respect; who gratefully acknowledge the efforts of the country; who condemn and resent the continued and unjust exclusion of rapidly growing territories, which have an indisputable title to admission into the extended of states; who are in favor of free schools and popular education, a free and honest ballot and a fair count, the protection of every citizen of the United States in his legal rights at home and abroad, a foreign policy that shall extend our trade and commerce to every land and climate, and shall properly secure the dignity of the nation and the promotion of friendly and harmonious relations and intercourse between all the states are cordially invited to unite under this call in the formation of a national ticket.

Each state will be entitled to four delegates at large, and for each representative at large two delegates, and each congressional district one delegate, and the District of Columbia two delegates.

The delegates-at-large shall be chosen by popular state conventions, called in not less than twenty days' published notice, and not less than thirty days before the meeting of the national convention. The congressional district delegates shall be chosen by the electors of the several states, and the District of Columbia, in made in said districts. The territorial delegates shall be chosen in the same manner as the nomination of delegates in congress is made. The delegates from the District of Columbia shall be chosen by the electors of that district, and members elected in the primary district assemblies held under the call and direction of the republican central committee of said district. An alternate delegate for each delegate in the national convention to act in case of the absence of the delegate, shall be elected in the same manner and at the same time as the delegate is elected.

All notices of conventions must be filed with the national committee in writing, accompanied by printed statements of the grounds of contests which shall be made public. Preference in the order of hearing and determining contests will be given by the convention in accordance with the dates of filing of such notices and statements with the national committee.

It is estimated that for the past six years strikes have cost the country $10,000,000 a year. And the worst of it is they haven't benefited even the men who engaged in them.

A very wonderful young man has been discovered in Kentucky. He is Benjamin Jackson, speaker of the house of representatives of that state. He is 29 years old, never had a political fight with knife or revolver, and never used tobacco.

It is estimated that the pope received 2,500 telegraphic messages of congratulation. Allowing ten words to each message, this would make 25,000 words. At an average rate of one dollar a word these messages would therefore represent a cost of $25,000.

The thing which the eastern free trade magnates most dislike in Mr. Blaine is that while he is in Europe he still carries his Americanism with him. They don't like this. When an American goes to Europe the free trade magnates want him to forget his country, as Lowell did, and talk free trade and British institutions.

A Milwaukee item on Wisconsin politics: Whatever work is being done now by the three candidates for the republican nomination for governor is being done very quietly. Colonel Glady has not been heard from for two weeks. Mr. McPetridge is living quietly at his home at Beaver Dam, while Mr. Taylor is out of the state. No new candidates have made their appearance, and it is not likely that any will. By common consent the three gentlemen named will be allowed to fight the matter out without interference.

There are 325 congressmen in the house of representatives from thirty-eight states. The southern delegation comes from fifteen states. It consists of 117 members, scarcely more than one-third of the whole house, and representing less than one-third of the young population of the country. And yet Speaker Carlisle has given to this minority body practically the control of the legislation of the present congress. Out of fifty-one chairmanships, he presents twenty-nine, including almost all the important ones, to the south. The administration knows on which side to butter its bread.

But perhaps the greatest error of the whole is to have entirely ignored on the committee the state of New York. Connecticut and New Jersey. No state in the Union is more deeply interested in the tariff and taxation questions than the state of New York, and it is a remarkable policy which overlooks three such states as those we have named and selects tariff advisers from Texas, Tennessee, Georgia, Kentucky and Arkansas.

The foregoing is from the New York World, Democrat. It shows how utterly partisan Mr. Carlisle is toward the south. Under this surrender of Carlisle to the southern states they are more completely in the saddle than they have been in thirty years. And the chairmanships were made out in the fashion they have been after a consultation with Mr. Cleveland.

The chief reason why the democrats will vote to admit Dakota is because it will make another republican state. The other day Senator Jones, of Arkansas, said he doubted whether the territory should be admitted, and in answer to that singular opinion, ex-Governor Pierce, of that territory, says: "Arkansas has been a state for over forty years, and to day she has 800,000 inhabitants to Dakota's 688,000. She has 2,183 miles of railroad, while Dakota has 4,216. She expends $561,000 annually for public schools, Dakota expends $2,000,000. She employs 1,500 school teachers, while Dakota employs 5,000. She has 150 newspapers, while Dakota has 332. In only one thing does Arkansas surpass, Dakota, and that is in the percentage of persons who cannot read or write. In this she stands in the ratio of 38 to 5."

The Great Miners Strike to Be Extended.

WYOMING MINERS TO BE ORDERED OUT.

Work in the Anthracite Region to Be Stopped - Wives of the Strikers Very Enthusiastic - G. W. Childs on Labor and Wages.

TO STOP COAL PRODUCTION.

New York, Jan. 9.-A conference was held Saturday night in Jersey City between representatives of the various trades involved in the Reading strike, and it was decided that the week about the 10th of the Wyoming mines. This action, it was said, would practically stop work in the anthracite coal region. A prominent member of District Assembly 49 said Sunday that the strike had fully made up their minds to fight this strike to the end and would make no attempt now to secure arbitration. Closing the Wyoming mines, he added, would result in thousands of men being thrown out of work from want of fuel to run factories and mills.

WILKESBARE, Pa., Jan. 9.-After a diligent search last evening among miners and others interested in the fact is learned that the anthracite labor in this (the Wyoming) region will not go out on strike. Even if they received such orders they would refuse to obey them, as they are not properly organized for a strike.

Reading, Pa., Jan. 9.-The run of coal down the road since midnight Saturday was but 500 cars, while three weeks ago yesterday there were shipped through this city nearly 6,000 cars by sixty-one engines. The information received at the company's office in this city is that yesterday's meeting of the strikers showed that there is no break in the future strike. Shumokin appears to be the hot-bed of the present strike. It is there most general, both on the railroad and in the mines, and it is there where the most feeling is shown against non-strike men.

The miners here who took the places of the strikers are being boycotted everywhere. Hotel-keepers refuse to keep them except at exorbitant rates, and many of them and the Pinkerton detectives are being kept in old passenger-cars especially fitted up in the shops in this city with blankets, etc.

The security of coal and the increased cost of that commodity has not yet resulted in a rising tide of prices for the necessities of life. The coal and iron companies and manufacturers in this vicinity, and the proprietors generally express a hope that a speedy settlement of the strike will avert such a course on their part.

A delegation of Knights from this city who had gone to Pittsburgh returned yesterday and reported that they had informed Chairman Lee that the 20,000 shop hands in this city would not strike, but greater cause was shown in the mining towns, the women are just as enthusiastic for a strike as the men. In many cases where the husbands were known their wives urged them to strike. It is estimated that the miners work only half the working days in the year. They make on an average between $300 and $600 a year. Many do not make more than $350 a year. Nearly all have large families to support, but most of them live comfortably.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 9.-The Board of Trade has appointed a committee to call on President Corbin and ask that an adjustment be made between the coal and iron companies and the miners. The committee is composed of Mr. Shantz, one of the leading merchants, has decided to refuse credit to strikers, and Philadelphia houses have notified local merchants that their credits would not be extended. Business is almost entirely suspended. The great majority of the miners have ample supplies for several months. The miners have been ordered to vacate the company's houses at Mt. Pleasant.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.-The Provisional Committee of the Knights of Labor advised at its meeting yesterday a resolution pledging itself and its members individually to do every thing in their power to secure for the strikers financial and financial backing against the present difficulty. The committee throughout the country to do the same. George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, said yesterday:

LOOKED UP.

The conviction and sentence of Sir William Russell and his wife to be hanged for two months.

DUBLIN, Jan. 9.-The hearing at Portlanna of the appeal of the case of Sir William Russell, who was arrested on a charge of violating the Queen's act by addressing a meeting at Woodford, Ireland, and was convicted and sentenced there to two months' imprisonment, resulted in the conviction and sentence being confirmed. The jury was divided 11 to 10 in favor of the conviction. The journey to the prison was the occasion of a riotous demonstration. A large crowd followed the prisoner, and the officers having him in charge and the police were compelled to drive them away. The crowd, which was very large, and the crowd shouting fight, several persons were seriously injured.

falling him, he did not prove unequal to the occasion.

William Cullen Bryant, then editor of the Post, and General Dan Sickles, connected this invidious appeal with Lowell, and so did Lowell himself, as a dispatch from Boston on the 4th of December, 1876, clearly shows. Lowell did not then betray his trust, but now, having been greatly inspired by the republican party, and when that party is now out of power, he turns and stabs it. It doesn't require a very keen eye to observe the motives that prompt such a piece of party treachery.

LABORER PEOPLE ARE NOT STARVING.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Jan. 9.-Several men from Willimantic, Green Bay, Newfoundland, arrived here Saturday en route for New York. They were discharged by the corner jury, was arrested Saturday on a warrant sworn out by the mother of the murdered man. She was given into the custody of an officer until Tuesday, when she will be allowed to go free.

Death of an Aged Sailor.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.-Captain Peter E. Flood, one of the oldest residents of this city, and who sailed the great lakes from 1835 to 1865, first as a common sailor and afterward as the master of vessels, died Saturday morning, aged 70 years.

DANGER FROM RISING WATER.

Heavy Hains Flood the Rivers to an Over-Flow - Damage Results.

DENVER, Ind., Jan. 9.-Heavy rains have fallen all the afternoon and evening, raising some of them already being over their banks. The Wabash river is bank-full and in many cases over the banks.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., Jan. 9.-Messages from the head of the Susquehanna river state that the heavy rainfall of Saturday caused the streams to overflow their banks. Booms and dams have given away and millions of feet of timber and logs have broken loose. The loss to lumbermen will be great.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 9.-The river reached a twenty-two foot stage yesterday afternoon, and are now flowing here and at the headwaters. Beyond the washing away of a few fences and some lumber in the lowlands there was no damage done by the freshet.

ADULTERATED FOOD AND DRINK.

The Commissioner of Agriculture Makes Another Report.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.-The Commissioner of Agriculture has just issued the third of a series of reports on adulterations of food, drinks and drugs. This report treats of adulterations of fermented alcoholic beverages, malt liquors, wine and cider. The chemist and analyst by whom the report is made concludes that beer is generally adulterated with acid poisonous and injurious to health. Of thirty-three samples of beer analyzed, six American beers contained salicylic acid, of which two were bottle brands, samples of Milwaukee beer, two from St. Louis, one from Alexandria, Va., and one from Philadelphia, which latter was also secured. In Philadelphia beer only seven of the thirty-three samples of beer brewed in Washington contained salicylic acid, and one carbonate of soda; the latter article was also found in Alexandria beer. One foreign beer contained salicylic acid. The use of glucose and sugar in malt adulterations is condemned as injurious to health.

The preserving agents used by brewers are still more severely condemned as means of putting bad beer on the market. Wines and cider are also reported to be extensively adulterated.

PAID NATURE'S DEBT.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 9.-Mary Young, a colored inhabitant of this city, died Saturday at the advanced age of 124 years. She was born at Fairfax, Va., and lived there most of her life. Her husband, a colored man, died many years ago.

AMERICAN CIVIL IN DANGER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.-Quite a stir has been caused here by a lecture on ecology delivered in Baltimore Friday night by Prof. Williams, of Johns Hopkins University, in which he declared Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and other cities are directly over a great fault, extending from Charleston, S. C., to Troy, N. Y., caused by settling movement of the coast at some remote period, and that all those cities are in more or less danger from earthquakes.

DOMESTIC TRAGEDY.

STOUT FALLS, N. J., Jan. 9.-Thomas Murray, keeper of the "Red Lion" in the Wall at Stout City, shot and instantly killed his wife and fatally shot himself in a disreputable house in this city Saturday evening. Mrs. Murray came from Stout City a few days ago and Murray followed her. Murray put three bullets into his wife's body and one into his own forehead, which will prove fatal. The cause of the tragedy is unknown as Murray is unconscious.

LIVE STOCK IN MONTANA.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 9.-No reliable returns have been received as to the condition of stock throughout eastern Montana. Before the present storm cattle were in excellent condition and well prepared for winter, but stockmen are somewhat uneasy, and a fortnight of inclement weather would result in serious losses. The thermometer ranges from 14 to 41 below zero, with an average of a foot of snow on the ground.

CONFLICTING LAWS.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 9.-Attention has been called by Judge Spear, United States District Judge, to the conflict between the Federal and state laws on the subject of the liquor traffic. The state prohibiting and the Federal Government granting licenses for the sale of liquor. It is suggested that a memorial be addressed to Congress on this subject.

INDIAN WANTS A CONVENTION.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 9.-A movement is on foot here, headed by prominent Democrats, to secure the holding of the National Democratic convention in this city. It is understood that a meeting of citizens, irrespective of party, will be held, and a formal invitation will be extended as soon as the committee meets.

BRAGG AND STOCKHOLDERS.

—"A Night Out" at the opera house to-night.

—The Royal Adelpheia will meet to-night.

—Miss Hattie Irving and company in the New Hidden Hand to-night.

—Saturday's cold wave predictions were not far out of the way after all.

—Charles D. Stevens has been visiting for a few days past with friends in Chicago.

—Another of the Court Street Literary Club's entertainments will be given this evening.

—Mrs. C. H. Mosley, matron of the State Hospital for the Insane at Madison, is home for a few days.

—Janesville Lodge No. 55, F. and A. M., assemble in regular semi-monthly communication this evening.

—Miss Hattie Irving will give as a souvenir of her second visit to Janesville, a solid silver ice water set away next Saturday night.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 82 assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the Judd block, North Main street.

—The programme arranged for to-night's meeting of the Court Street Literary club is of a very entertaining nature. All are invited. Admission free.

—To-night the Mohawk Tribe of Red Men will prepare to go on the war path. Chiefs will be selected and council fires (red light) will be kindled.

—Rock Legion, Select Knights, A. O. U. W., assemble in regular semi-monthly session this evening—lodge room in the Smith block, East Milwaukee street.

—Mr. Ed. B. Hayward, foreman of the Chicago & Northwestern railway shops in this city, is confined to his home by a severe attack of congestion of the lungs.

—Court Street church young people met last night and decided to organize a Young People's League similar to that of the Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Baptists.

—Mrs. C. A. Potter will leave to-morrow for a six-months' trip through California. She will visit her daughter in Los Angeles and her brothers in San Francisco.

—Mr. J. A. Leland, who is spending the holidays with his son in Minneapolis, remembers the Gazette by sending the holiday editions of the daily papers in this city.

—Bower City Division No. 113, Order of Railway Conductors, are making extensive preparations for their annual banquet, which will take place in this city in the near future.

—From his announcement in another column, it is inferred that Mr. J. A. Deniston's "To-morrow" has come. It seems to be a pretty good sort of to-morrow for the people of Janesville.

—The funeral of Will Schuman, whose death was announced on Saturday evening, will be held on to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, from his late home on South River street.

—Members of the Terpsichorean club and all others who are invited to join, are requested to meet at Cannon's hall next Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

—Died very suddenly at the residence of her niece, Miss Sue and Olive Parker, Prospect avenue, Second ward. Miss Edna Mae Wells, of Milwaukee. Aged eighty-five years and six months.

—Regular meeting of the common council this evening. The accumulated business of the past month will undoubtedly induce a quorum of aldermen to be present and dispose of work before it.

—E. R. Havens, for the past two years cashier for Hancock & Sheldon, will leave on the last of the week for Lansing, Michigan, having accepted a lucrative position in the land office at that city.

—The calmest rain in creation is a little twenty-five cent thermometer on a rigid morning. In its deliberate way of telling an incredible story it beats the weather philosopher who remembers the cold winter of 1816.—Omniscient Gazette.

—Bert, Bailey & Greenman, the popular dry goods men, have decided to give the people of the city a benefit, on a series of special sales, commencing on Wednesday, January 11th. Look out for their announcement in the Gazette to-morrow evening.

—The blowing of a police whistle last evening somewhere on Main or East Milwaukee street, about eight o'clock, by some mischievous individual, caused several saloons in that neighborhood to "turn their lights down a little lower" and send out a "picket" guard to ascertain the trouble.

—To-night at the Court Street Church literary entertainment, Mr. Kimberly will sing "Dumplings" celebrated, descriptive battle song, on the battle of Murfreesboro, entitled "Who'll Save the Lett". As a companion piece, in memory of the hundreds of brave boys that fell, during that battle, the beautiful song, entitled "The Vacant Chair," will be rendered.

—Miss Hattie Irving, the most graceful little soubrette, in new songs and dances; and Mr. Thomas Peasley will entertain all with his funny budget of grotesque gyrations, and original sayings, songs, etc., at Lappin's opera house to-night. Don't fail to be there, you will laugh as you never laughed before. For it will make those laugh who never laughed before, and those who come to laugh will laugh the more.

—Much credit should be given to the Caladonian society for the philanthropic work that is being done. About a month ago Mr. C. Gifford, a young Scotchman and blacksmith by trade, came to this country, and soon after his arrival here he was taken severely ill. The Caladonian society investigated his case and finding it a worthy one rendered him all the assistance in their power, providing him with nurse and otherwise caring for him. Thanks to this the young man is now well on the road to recovery.

—The funeral of the late David J. Pratt was held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pratt, in the town of Janesville, this afternoon at two o'clock, the attendance of sympathizing friends of the bereaved family being very large. The Rev. W. F. Brown, pastor of the Presbyterian church, this day, conducted the services, after which the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment, the pall bearers being Messrs. Geo. A. Airs,

SHOWING THE QUEER.

—The members of the W. O. T. U. are earnestly invited to attend the meeting at the Wayside Inn on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock, January 10th. Matters of great importance must be decided. All other ladies interested in good work are cordially invited to be present. Will each lady please call herself, if she has any responsibility in carrying on this work. There is much to be done. Each one adds to the strength of the band and the efficiency of the much-needed work. Please consider this notice as an individual call upon each woman to attend this meeting. W. Jennings Demorest, of the well-known fashion magazine, presents each member of the W. O. T. U. with an excellent likeness of Mrs. W. L. Ward, which may be obtained by calling at the Wayside Inn.

UNITARY.

Mrs. John D. Ehle died at her home in the second ward a few minutes after two o'clock this afternoon. Her death was caused by cancer, the disease having confined her to her bed for six months past.

Mrs. Ehle was forty-five years of age. She was born in Ireland but spent most of her early years in Brooklyn, N. Y. Besides a husband she leaves four children. Her death will be sincerely mourned for her gentle kindness and her patience in the most terrible suffering had endeavored her to all.

No funeral arrangements have yet been made. It is probable, however, that the services will be held on Wednesday.

AN INSTRUCTION CAR.

For the benefit of employees of the C. M. & St. Paul.

An air brake instruction car is on its way to this city over the Milwaukee & St. Paul road. It is in charge of C. J. Kershaw, superintendent of air brakes. The car is a large one, in fact the largest and finest of the kind in use. It is 55 feet long and on the interior is a boiler, air pump, water tank and everything pertaining to the workings of air brakes. The apparatus represents eleven cars in size, or is equivalent to twelve cars. The idea of the St. Paul railway company in arranging this car is to instruct and educate the employees of the road, especially conductors, engineers, and firemen, so as to thoroughly understand the system of the Westinghouse air brakes used by the C. M. & St. Paul system.

The car contains a locomotive, valves of all kinds, and the workings can be made to apply on one or twelve cars; in fact it represents a full school of the Westinghouse automobile air brakes. It will give the employees practical knowledge that they could not gain on the road in years. In a short time the car will be made thoroughly conversant with the workings of air brakes.

For some time past instruction has been given on the southwestern division, the car being stationed at Home.

HATTIE IRVING.

Miss Irving, who is now playing at the Academy, is a woman of great physical charm, and more than ordinary ability as a comedienne. The new piece in which she appears, "The Street Wait," is a farcical play of real merit, with many funny incidents and a great deal that is laughable. It affords Miss Irving numerous opportunities for the display of her versatile talent. The entertainment is one that is likely to prove popular. Chicago Evening Telegram.

The above artist, supported by the prince of entertainers, Mr. Thomas Peasley, and a carefully selected comedy company, will commence a week's engagement in this city at Lappin's opera house to-night.

TOBACCO SALES.

The reporter had.

PEACE ON EARTH.

Avails that countless army of martyrs, whose ranks are constantly recruited from the victims of persecutions and nervous diseases. The price of the boom is a systematic course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest and most genial of tonic medicines, prepared with reasonable persistence. Excite, please, and water than to reach the vitalizing department with pseudo-tonics, electricity or the reverse, but eat, drink, nerve food, narcotics, sedatives and poisons in disguise.

"Tired Nature's sweetest restorer, balmy sleep" is the providential reward of those who use this vigorous, health-giving remedy with persistence and vigor, the great stimulant which restores both in production also of repose at the required time. Not unrefreshed awakens the individual who uses it with vigor, clear headed and tranquil. Use the Bitters also in fever and acute rheumatism, kidney trouble, constipation and biliousness.

COUNTERFEIT DOLLARS BEING UNLOADED ON THE PEOPLE OF JANESVILLE.

Some of the More Dangerous Varieties, and How Detected.

Counterfeit silver dollars are floating about the city in large numbers.

"Judging from the amount of bad silver presented at this counter within the past few days, somebody must have been 'selling' the town," so said the cashier of one of the city banks this morning.

"Most of the stuff," he continued, "is in the form of dollars. And some of the imitations are very close, too. They are not all of the same kind. The most dangerous one I think, was one that came in Saturday. It had the genuine silver 'feel,' it weighed to a hair, and the workmanship was perfect. The only fault was in the ring, and even this was hardly noticeable. If you compared the sound with that of a good coin you could detect the difference, but otherwise it is very doubtful whether you would or not."

"There was another one that came in about the same time that came very near fooling me. It was perfect in looks, 'faded' in weight, but when I came to 'examine' under a strong glass I could see where it had been split open, the inside dug out and the hole filled with composition. A coin like that, though, has no more ring than so much lead. The kind that ring are made of a composition of metal and glass. The glass gives with metal so as to give a very fine color, while the sound is perfect. But the glass dollar always lacks weight. They want come up to the standard by from twenty to thirty grains.

"A row of the counterfeiters that are being passed around town, good imitations or not?"

"As a rule, not. Some of them could be detected fifteen feet away. They are battered and cheap looking, and have that peculiar leaden, greasy 'feel' that can never be disguised."

"Where do you think the coins come from?"

"I shouldn't be surprised if they were put in circulation up north somewhere. I see that Ben Oline, Oshkosh, sent a number of other lumber towns have been 'flooded' lately. But then about every three months the town is 'flooded' to a greater or less extent anyway, and this may be just one of the periodical attacks."

SOL SMITH RUSSELL.

He Appears in E. F. Kildner's New Play, "Hewiched."

Sol Smith Russell, in "Bowitched," was a revelation. But then the play was a revelation as well. It hinged on the properties of an East India charm. Anybody possessing this charm was bound to set by contraries—to do the very thing that in their moral condition they would most avoid.

Mr. Russell took the part of Halsey Todd. Todd is a Y. M. C. A. young man whose mind seeks consolation in the earnest pamphlets of the Rev. Dodo Drake. He picks up the enchanted amulet unwittingly and is transformed from a "pulpit and sejourner" into a howling young man with a pronounced fancy for kissing young ladies and smashing windows. The freezing and thawing of his countenance as he picks up or lays down the innocent-looking charm, is indelibly funny.

In the course of the play the amulet gets in its work on the entire family with which Todd boards. Old man becomes preternaturally frisky, Todd's mother dances the Highland fling, and Toby, the dignified butler, appears as a whooping Indian with crabby sauce war paint.

The plot is well drawn. It furnishes opportunities for much very amusing work, and Mr. Russell better by long odds than anything in which he has ever appeared. It is to be regretted that the audience Saturday night was not of more complimentary proportions.

THE BURN FESTIVAL.

The members of the Rock County Caladonian Society are now making arrangements for the observance of Burns' birthday by an anniversary festival and entertainment to be given in the Guards' armory on the evening of Tuesday, January 24th, for which invitations will be issued in a few days.

The several committees having the details in charge are planning a fine entertainment, which is to conclude with a dance.

The Rev. Joseph White, of All Souls church, and Ogden H. Fethers, Esq., are to be the speakers, which is sufficient guarantee that the oratory has been placed in competent hands. Miss Florence Forbes, who so charmed the audience at the festival last year with her Scotch ballads and songs, will again be present on the occasion. Other attractions will be on the programme, which will soon be announced. The committee will do their utmost to make this festival more interesting and enjoyable than any previous one by this society. All members are requested to make a note of this fact.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock yesterday morning the thermometer indicated 13 degrees above zero. Cloudy with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 28 degrees above zero. Clear with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours last year the register was 2 degrees below and 9 above zero. At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 5 degrees below zero. Clear with north wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 16 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with north wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 8 1/2 and 18 degrees above zero.

Ladies to keep just on the plump side of slenderness, take New Style Vinegar Bitters.

THE DIFFERENCE YOU MAKE.

God made the country, man the town. We often hear it said, But God the country painted green and Man the town painted red.
